

Conference Tracks

Track 1	Cultural Identity and Globalization
Track 2	Indigenous Rights: Policy and Practice
Track 3	Methodologies and Effective Strategies

Conference Agenda

THURSDAY, January 17, 2008

4:30 pm - 6:30 pm	Registration Open	CLAUSTRO 2 Funders-Only Orientation	CLAUSTRO 3 Non-Funders Orientation
6:30 pm - 7:30 pm		Reception: IFIP's Esteem member EcoLogic Development Fund and Reforestamos Mexico celebrating new partnership
7:30 pm - 9:30 pm		SALON JUAREZ -Informal Dinner
9:30 pm - 10:45 pm		Movie Night - SALON JUAREZ "Crossing Arizona" Shown at Sundance Film Festival 2006 Shown at International Film festival in Mexico Winner best documentary- Arizona International Film Festival

FRIDAY, January 18, 2008

8:00 am - 5:00 pm	Registration, Membership & Resource Tables Open	Registration, Membership & Resource Tables Open
8:00 am - 9:00 am		Continental Breakfast &amp; Discussion Tables - SALON JUAREZ
9:00 am - 9:45 am		Welcoming and Opening Prayer Indigenous Elders Macedonia Blas Flores, ñahnö, Fotzi Ñahnö Evelyn Arce-White, International Funders for Indigenous Peoples
9:45 am - 10:30 am		Keynote Speaker Don Samuel Ruiz Garcia- Bishop Emeritus of San Cristobal de Las Casas Nobel Peace Prize Nominee (1994, 1995, and 1996) and recipient of the Martin Ennals Award, the Niawano Peace Prize, and the Simon Bolivar Prize from UNESCO. (Introduction by Kathy Vargas of Querétaro Community Foundation)
10:30 am - 11:00 am		Networking Break (Refreshments Served)
11:00 am - 12:30 pm		SALON JUAREZ Track 1 Indigenous Community Radio Stations and the Revival of Cultural Identity	CLAUSTRO 2 Track 2 Strengthening Indigenous Autonomy and Institutional Capacities	CLAUSTRO 3 Track 3 Redefining Wealth and Progress: Evaluation in Indigenous Communities
12:30 pm - 2:00 pm		Mexican Buffet Lunch - Restaurant Aranjuez Short Presentation on: Homage to Cuauhtemoc
2:00 pm - 3:30 pm		SALON JUAREZ Track 1 Moving an Elephant: No to NAFTA, Yes to Indigenous Development	CLAUSTRO 2 Track 2 Indigenous Land Rights: A Global Survey	CLAUSTRO 3 Track 3 Building Trans-Community Solidarity: Strengthening Indigenous Philanthropy

3:30 pm - 4:00 pm	Networking Break-(Refreshments Served)
4:00 pm - 5:30 pm	SALON JUAREZ Track 1 Traditional Knowledge as Basis for Indigenous Governability	CLAUSTRO 2 Track 2 Fighting for Her Rights: Young Indigenous Leaders in Central America	CLAUSTRO 3 Track 3 Valuing Nature and the Nature of Values: Co-Modification or Conservation?
5:30 pm - 5:45 pm	Closing Prayer & Announcements
6:30 pm - 9:30 pm	Mexican Buffet Dinner & Mariachi Band - PLAZA EL PUEBLITO

SATURDAY, January 19, 2008

8:00 am - 5:00 pm	Registration, Membership & Resource Tables Open
8:00 am - 9:00 am	Mexican Breakfast at Restaurant Aranjuez
9:00 am - 9:15 am	Welcoming and Opening Prayer - SALON JUAREZ
9:15 am - 9:45 am	Keynote Speaker Mirna Cunningham (Miskita from Nicaragua), Doctor, former-regional coordinator (governor), congress women, and first rector of the university of the Atlantic Coast (URACCAN). (Introduction by David Kaimowitz of Ford Foundation)
9:45 am - 10:00 am	Short Break
10:00 am - 11:30 pm	SALON JUAREZ Track 1 Putting Brakes on a Moving Train: Indigenous Alternatives to Genetically Modified Corn	CLAUSTRO 2 Track 2 Turning Victory into Law: Capitalizing on the UN Declaration, The Case of El Estor	CLAUSTRO 3 Track 3 Funding Indigenous Peoples and Benefit Payments for Ecosystem Services
11:30 am - 11:45 am	Short Break
11:45 am - 1:30 pm	CLAUSTRO 2 Funders-Only Session Tracking the Field of Environmental Grantmaking and Indigenous Peoples	CLAUSTRO 3 Non-Funders Session Becoming a More Effective Grantseeker
1:30 pm - 1:45 pm	Bag Lunches and Loading of Buses
1:45 pm - 6:30 pm	Site Visit El Cerrito Pyramid and Friendship Ceremony at El Cerro de Sangre Mal, sacred site where the Chichimecas encountered the Spanish & Drive through several historic sites in Downtown Queretaro
7:00 pm - 10:30 pm	Salon Siglo XVIII - Dinner, Closing Speaker and Musical Band Grupo Naturaleza James Anaya, James J. Lenoir Professor of Human Rights Law and Policy, James E. Rogers College of Law at University of Arizona

SUNDAY, January 20, 2008

8:00 am - 12:00 am	Departure (Continental Breakfast and Lunch Available)
--------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------

REGISTRATION TABLES WILL BE OUTSIDE OF SALON JUAREZ
MARIPOSA I- Resource Room and Native Arts
MARIPOSA 2- Energy Treatment for Cost
Simultaneous Interpretation Services by Tlatolli Ollin, Words in Movement