FOR INDIGENOUS PEOPLES

We are pleased to invite you to a three-day summit, 27, 28 & 29 March 2011, to learn from the rich experiences, traditions and activities of Asian and Pacific Indigenous Peoples.

The summit is open to all interested funders. It promises to be a critical coming together that for building understanding and partnerships with indigenous peoples in the region. While the issues are complex, groups of Indigenous Peoples have practical success on which to build.

This Summit is hosted by the

Indonesian Alliance of Indigenous Peoples,
International Funders for Indigenous Peoples, Samdhana Institute, Tebtebba Foundation and Asia Indigenous Peoples Pact

Photovoices Sukabumi: Community Engagement in West Java, Indonesia

The Photovoices project in Sukabumi was conducted in five districts in West Java, involving 30 volunteer photographers from eleven villages. These villages were chosen to represent women's issues in the local community and encourage their improved participation and involvement in decisions affecting their communities. In addition, one village located within the Gunung Halimun Salak National Park was chosen to represent the issues facing the culture of the Kasepuhan Ciptagelar indigenous people, who live in an ecologically important part of the Park.
